Calgary Co-op Announces Results of Board of Directors Election and Board Officer Appointments for 2010

March 12, 2010, Calgary, Alberta – The 53rd annual general meeting of Calgary Co-operative Association Limited was held on March 10, 2010, where the results of the election for its board of directors were announced. Incumbent director Myra D’Souza Kormann was re-elected to the board of directors for a three year term. Two new directors were also elected – Roy Goodall and Randy Kott, each for three year terms.

The board of directors also appointed its board officers for 2010-2011. Stuart Cantrill was re-appointed board chair, Terry Geib was re-appointed vice chair, and Lisa Wise was re-appointed board secretary. Other board members include Barry Ashton, Johanna Bates, Roy Goodall, Myra D’Souza Kormann, Randy Kott and Rick Smith.

“I am honoured to be re-appointed as board chair,” says Cantrill. “I and other members of our board of directors will continue to support our executive management team in ensuring the continuing success of this co-operative.”

The board also extends its appreciation to retiring board members Laura Sullivan and Alex Ingram for their years of dedicated service to the board and the member-owners of Calgary Co-op.

Locally owned and operated, Calgary Co-op is one of the largest retail co-operatives in North America. It has over 438,000 members, 4,000 employees, assets of $393 million and annual sales of just over $1 billion.
